

Faversham Music Festival - 2018

Sunday 24th June

Faversham Music Festival at Faversham Open Gardens

In collaboration with the Faversham Society

Find members of Faversham Youth Music performing at

10:30am    The Market Place
2pm        Stonebridge Pond

11:30am    The Physic Garden
3pm        The Market Place

Monday 25th June

Music for a while

An evening exploring treasures of European song with the music of Purcell, Monteverdi, Wolf, Warlock & Britten

7:30pm at the Assembly Rooms

Ian Williams - Tenor

Ben Saul - Piano

Tuesday 26th June

Classical Coffee Morning

Who knows what it will be?! The regular Assembly Rooms Tuesday morning recital

10:45am at the Assembly Rooms

Wednesday 27th June

'Learn all there is to learn'

This organ recital, given by Charles Francis and members of the Faversham Youth Music Ensemble features Handel's sparkling organ concerto Op. 4 no. 1.

7:30pm at the Almshouses

Charles Francis - Organ

The Faversham Youth Music Ensemble

All concerts are free* with a retiring collection.

All profits go towards supporting Faversham Youth Music, offering musical opportunities for all children and young people in Faversham and the surrounding areas.

Become a Friend of the Festival with a suggested minimum donation of £45 for all 8 concerts or £70 for a couples subscription.

*There is a charge of £35 per head for the Opera gala event. The cost for Friends is £30.
Artwork by Dave Fagg

Faversham Youth Music
23.12.17
Dave Fagg

Faversham Music Festival - 2018

Thursday 28th June

In & out of the Kitchen

Fabulous locally based CantiaQuorum perform music by Debussy, Boulanger, Bernstein, & Martinu

7:30pm at the Assembly Rooms

CantiaQuorum

Friday 29th June

Goldberg Variations

Scintillating soloist and baroque repertoire coach from the Guildhall School of Music & Drama, Asako Ogawa, gives us JS Bach's perfect night time music

7:30pm at the Assembly Rooms

Asako Ogawa - Harpsichord

Saturday 30th June

Classical Coffee Morning

Who knows what it will be?! The regular Assembly Rooms Saturday morning recital

10:45am at the Assembly Rooms

Saturday 30th June

Singalong Brahms Requiem

Come and sing Brahm's sublime music in his own version for chorus and piano duet. You will be joined by Faversham Youth Choir and directed by Festival Director, Ben Saul. Scores provided

1pm rehearsal at the Assembly Rooms

4pm performance

Saturday 30th June

A Night at the Opera

A special, tickets only, Festival event. A glass of prosecco on arrival, dinner, and all the opera greats from internationally renowned local baritone, Simon Thorpe, and his specially selected troupe of singers, accompanied by the finest food available from the Macknade kitchen. Early booking online at macknade.com or from Macknade Fine Foods is essential

7:45pm for 8pm at Macknades

All concerts are free* with a retiring collection.

All profits go towards supporting Faversham Youth Music, offering musical opportunities for all children and young people in Faversham and the surrounding areas.

Become a Friend of the Festival with a suggested minimum donation of £45 for all 8 concerts or £70 for a couples subscription.

*There is a charge of £35 per head for the Opera gala event. The cost for Friends is £30.
Artwork by Dave Fagg

Faversham Youth Choir
23.12.17